

I am very concerned that the ownership of media is now more and more concentrated into the hands of fewer companies. With this comes the possibility of only one or very limited points of view appearing on television, in print or over our airwaves. Please do not relax the regulations in place. Our democracy is at stake.

Sincerely,

Lisa Petrilli